THE OUTCROP, CANTERBURY.

North East Kootenay, B. C.

THURSDAY, OCT. 25, 1900.

As will be seen in our "Golden Nuggets" Judge Forin has postponed the County Court which was to have been held in Golden on the 18th to today, the 25th. The pleasure of the court must at all times be respected but even in this little justice and unselfishness should be shown. While the court was called for Thanksgiving day, which was a public holiday, it was only reasonable to suppose that the postponement would have been but for the one day, which would not have inconvenienced those in attendance so very much. When a dozen men are taken away from their business a distance of 80 miles it entails no small amount of expense and their various business interests must suffer a great deal more than the meagre payment allowed by the court for expenses, but when they are obliged to remain a whole week for apparently no good reason it is no wonder they indulged in some unholy blessings. It is more annoying when it is considered how often this court has been postponed. It was first called for Sept. 13th, postponed to Oct. 3rd, again to the 18th and now to the 25th. A number of the interested parties went all the way to Golden in September only to return without anything being accomplished, and now several of the men have returned here again as their business would not permit them being absent more than a week and have once more gone to Golden. When it is further considered that two days time are consumed in going and another two days in returning one can readily see where the great trouble and expense comes in.

Another difficulty arising from the postponement to the 25th is the fact that the fall assizes are held in Revelstoke on the 26th, and it will be necessary for some men to attend the two courts.

We think it about time to establish a court in this locality, if for no other reason than the curtailing of travelling expenses.

The Dominion election day is fast approaching and every man should decide in his own mind for whom he will vote. Who will be the best man to look after the welfare of our big riding? Does it make any difference whether he be Liberal or Conservative or Independent so long as he is a conscientious man? It cannot be gainsaid that the short rule of the Liberals has not been a prosperous period in the Dominion. The Conservatives after many years of reign got a setback in the last election, which no doubt has set them thinking and working and it is just possible were they again to gain power they would endeavor more than ever to act justly.

In this riding we have three candidates, Messrs. McNeil, Conservative, Gallihier, Liberal, and Foley, Independent. It will be a hard fight between them for the honor. Mr. Foley will have the union at his back and all the laboring classes are comprised in the union vote. If the workmen leave out their forefathers' political religions. Mr. Foley will be our next member, for in this riding, as the world over, the working men are in the majority. If not, it will need plenty of hard work to bring either party out on top.

East Kootenay.AGRICULTURAL RESOURCES*Farmers Are Now Threshing.

As the hum of the threshing machine is heard throughout the length and breadth of this fertile valley, one is more and more convinced of the great future in store for agricultural settlers in this district. As our mineral wealth becomes more important and development steadily uncovers wonderful bodies of ore, the thrifty farmer can see ahead of him only a few short years ere he will be as independent as any man can hope to be in any part of this fair Dominion. The demand will always exceed the supply and therefore the valley holds out as good inducements to the agriculturist as any part of this wonderful Province, which is saying a good deal.

Small cereals have proven long ago to grow with wonderful luxuriance and grain, especially oats, have a remarkable growth, while the small amount of fruit trees planted are loaded with luscious fruit.

The Victoria Times has an article on agriculture which in a general way covers every portion of this Province and which we append:

In the agricultural sections of the province these are the days when the fruit of the tools of husbandmen are set forth to public view. People from Eastern Canada, with natural partiality for the home of their childhood, are apt to hold the view that there is no section of the Dominion which can produce such fruit as Ontario. They do not make allowance for the fact that in the days of youth the appetite is keen and the appreciation of all the good things that have been placed on the earth for the enjoyment of man becomes somewhat dulled with the passing years. The child probably find after passing a number of years in British Columbia when they return to the place from whence they originally came that the glories have passed away, that the apples and pears are scarcely so luscious as the imagination painted them, and if they paid visit to the Spanish or any of the other parts of this province they would probably be ready to admit that in fruit as in everything else that makes glad the heart of man, British Columbia cannot be beaten. Perhaps in the matter of cattle our farmers may have a trifle behind those of the rest of the Dominion, but steps have been taken to remedy this and before the lapse of many years we shall probably be able to point with pride to the fact that in all things British Columbia leads the way.

MASONIC FRATERNITY

Grand Master At Golden

On Monday evening last the members of the A. F. & A. M. were favored with a visit from their Grand Master, Most Worshipful Bro. H. H. Watson, of Vancouver. Being the first visit of such an important personage the local members of the order spared no pains to make the occasion one which will long be remembered by those brethren fortunate enough to be present. The Most Wor. Brother visited the lodge and was received by the brethren in his official capacity, when he subjected them to a rigid examination in craft Masonry and expressed the utmost satisfaction with the manner in which the work was being exemplified in this part of his jurisdiction, after which the members of the lodge together with the visiting brethren repaired to the Kootenay House where the proprietor, Bro. J. C. Ellock, had prepared a banquet in honor of the Most Wor. Brother. Amongst the brethren who sat down to the spread were Bros. R. W. Patmore, C. H. Parson, H. G. Parson, W. Longmore, Sheriff Redgrave, W. H. Harrison, W. W. Rogers, J. C. Ellock, Geo. B. McBurnett, F. Stalker, W. Caldwell, G. Manuel, E. Shunter, C. A. Warren, Golden, and Wor. Bro. T. McGillivray, Whistler; W. Turnbull, Field; A. McGregor, Kamloops; Yates, New Denver; J. A. Murray, Field; and Frank Whitney, London. The table was spread with the delicacies of the season and abounded with wild fowl of every description which would have done justice to the best caterers in any city in the Dominion. After partaking of the dinner the toast list was introduced by the Senior Warden, who presided in the absence of the Wor. Mas. J. C. Pitts. "The Queen and the Craft," was followed by the hearty singing of the national anthem. "The Most Wor. Grand Lodge of B.C." was responded to by Bro. Rev. C. F. Yates. The next toast was that of "Our Guest, the Most Wor. The Grand Master of B.C.," which brought to his feet Most Wor. Bro. H. H. Watson who was received with prolonged applause. He proved himself to be a very able entertainer. After expressing his thanks for the honor done him by the members of the Craft in Golden, and his pleasure at being able to be among them. He reviewed at some length the recent strides Masonry was making in the province over which he had the pleasure of being Grand Master and urged upon each member present the importance of recognizing the dignity and honor conferred upon them on being made Masons and the duty that each and every one of them owed to the Honorable Craft to which they belonged, and closed his interesting speech by reciting an amusing essay on King Solomon written by a school girl, in which the great father of Masons in an amusing manner was depicted in his characteristic wisdom. The toasts to the "Visiting Brethren," was responded to by Bro. Yates, McGillivray, McGregor, Murray, Curry and Whiting. "Sister Societies" by Bro. Warren and Harrison. "The Professions" by Bro. Yates and McGillivray. "The land we live in" by Bro. Rogers. "The Ladies" by Bro. McBurnett.

The Most Wor. Master called the visiting brethren to their feet and asked them to drink to the toast, "Officers and Members of Mountain Lodge No. 11," in reply to which Bro. Patmore, Harrison, Rogers and McBurnett, expressed the pleasure it gave them and the members of Mountain Lodge in having the Grand Master of the Province visit the lodge and trusted this his first visit would not be his last. A number of the brethren favored the gathering during the evening with songs and the Junior Warden's toast, "Happy to meet, sorry to part and Happy to meet again," wound up an evening of profit and pleasure to the members of Mountain Lodge.
